The war record of the Democratic ticket would be endorsed by the Confederates.
The Indian Bureau has already been responsible for too many massacres in the Territories, now let it do something to stop these outbreaks.
The question is being discussed among the Democrats whether or not Jenkins will run well enough to entitle him to some of the gate money. The chances are against him.
When James R. Doolittle was asked the other day if he thought Grant would be elected if nominated, he hung his head and said: "Well, yes; possibly he might—can't tell yet." So truthful James is losing faith in Tilden's strength.
Since Tilden has fallen out with so many leading Democrats, and the South is almost solid against him, he says he has taken no steps to secure the nomination in 1880, and will take no active part in securing it.
Tilden does not want to be beaten a second time.
The officials of the Indian Bureau should arm themselves and march against the Utes, and should these suffer the fate of the unfortunate Thornburgh and his men, and of Mr. Meeker at his defenseless family, the country would not be thrown into a state of mourning.
A Greenback mass-meeting was held at Madison on Thursday evening. There were twelve Greenbacks present, and with Republicans and Democrats, and University students, the total number present at this mass-meeting and political entertainment, was thirty-five.
Among the successful candidates for cadet midshipmen at the United States Naval Academy, at Annapolis, are E. L.
Lennon and G. W. Street, of this State.
Street lives at Waukesha, and was elected by the Board of Examiners organized by Congressman Williams.
When a public officer has ordered the people for several years and been faithful to his trust, and they call him out for recollection, the Democrats sneer at such a record and want to know "how do you look?" To us it looks as if "that officer would win by 15,000 majority." The Madison Democrat don't like Governor Smith's war record. He was too loyal during the war to suit that journal.
The Democrat "points with pride" at Jen-kins's record—when he cheered for Jeff Davis and the Confederacy. That is the record that suits the Democracy.

STRICKEN ADRIAN.

The Calamity and its Victims—Sixteen Deaths Two Hundred and Thirty Wounded.

ADRIAN, Mich., Oct. 3.—It is hardly possible yet to appreciate fully the extent of the appalling calamity which has fallen on this city and county. The shadow of suffering and death resting on so many homes involves the whole community, and nothing is talked of but the calamity and its victims.

The scene on the Fair grounds yesterday afternoon, when the grand stand went crashing to the ground with its burden of men, women, and children, was one never to be forgotten. Every heart stood still for a moment and then scores of men rushed to the scene lying under the heavy timber and roof. Nothing that could be done to relieve the wants of the suffering was left undone. The wounded were carried away, and medical attendants secured as quickly as possible. The physicians of the city, and the present from other parts of the country, worked like bees without stint. Dry goods stores gave out of the material necessary for bandages, while drug stores for hours resembled a field hospital in a general engagement, many of the minor wounded flocking there for attendance.

The city is in mourning to-day. Grief and other signs of sorrow are displayed from office buildings, and every business house. The accident nearly all the stores were closed out of respect to those who participated in the disaster. Sixteen have already died, and two hundred and thirty-four are under medical treatment.

THE UTES.

Comments of the Recent Outbreak of the Ute Indians.

New York, Oct. 3.—The Ute outbreak and its cause occupy the journals. The absence of Schurz and Indian Commissioner Hoyt from their posts is commented upon by the press. Hoyt, here, told a Herald reporter that the presence of troops was the cause of the outbreak. The Herald's Washington special to-day and yesterday attribute the outbreak primarily to aggressive miners and failure of the Government to keep faith with the Indians, and says: Agent Meeker has proved one of the most upright and competent men in that branch of public service, but he has been handicapped by a Congress which has failed to make appropriations for from $75,000 to $100,000 due the Indians. The Indians who are on resolutions ceded to them by the government under treaty were protected, as they are entitled to be, against the aggressions of marauding miners and dishonesty of government officers, this outbreak would no doubt have been averted.

In a published interview with Gov. Perkins, yesterday, he is reported as saying: The whites now understand they are liable to be attacked in any part of the State at any time where Indians happen to be in sufficient force, and unless the Indians are removed by the government, they must necessarily be exterminated. The State is willing to settle the Indian trouble at its own expense. The settlers would million acres of land to miners and the settlers would more than compensate for all the expenses incurred.

The Times publishes a statement supported to be derived from General Sheridan, that Thornburgh obeyed orders in refraining from firing on the Indians until the attack, and that this is in strict accordance with the peace policy of the Interior Department. Officers of that department assert, however, that the army now as ever moves independently of the Interior Department, and would not be likely to consult its policy when attacked by Indians.

THE PLATFORM.

A Sound Document Put Forward by the Republican Convention.

The Course of the Democratic Party Shown Up and Denounced.

President Hayes Sustained and Thanked for His Persistent Efforts.

The Republicans of Wisconsin, by their representatives assembled in state convention, declare their adherence to the following propositions:

FIRST-
The Republic of the United States is a nation, not a confederacy of sovereign states, and the government is clothed with a permanent authority for the regulation of all subjects of national concern.

SECOND-
The elections of members of Congress are national elections, and as such the whole country is interested in having them fairly and peacefully conducted, so that every voter may be afforded an opportunity to exercise his right of suffrage freely and without fear of personal violence, to vote once and only once at a given election, and to have his vote honestly counted and returned.
It is the duty of the national government to enforce this right. The Republican party is opposed to any military interference with elections, except when it is necessary to maintain the public peace and protect the constitutional rights of citizens. In no instance under a Republican administration have United States troops interfered with the exercise of free suffrage on the part of the people. The Democratic party, by the policy of its representatives in Congress, has proposed to prohibit the presence in the vicinity of the polls not only of United States troops, but of all men armed with deadly weapons, has sought to deprive the ballot-box of its sanctity by the employment of bayonets at the polls, it would permit an armed mob of its own partisans to surround the ballot-box, but would prohibit the employment of United States soldiers to protect peaceful citizens from intimidation and violence at the hands of the mob.

THIRD-
The refusal of a mere majority in Congress to make appropriations of money already collected taxes from the people, and to expend them for the necessities of the government, is a gross and unjustified interference with the rights of the people, and is a violation of the constitutional provisions which relate to the appropriation of money. The Republican party is opposed to such a course, and to the passage of any law which would authorize such a course. It is the duty of the national government to protect the rights of the people, and to see that the money of the country is expended for the purposes for which it was raised.

FOURTH-
The practice of attaching what is popularly termed "political riders" to appropriation bills is a violation of the constitutional provisions which relate to the appropriation of money, and is a gross and unjustified interference with the rights of the people. The Republican party is opposed to such a course, and to the passage of any law which would authorize such a course.
It is the duty of the national government to protect the rights of the people, and to see that the money of the country is expended for the purposes for which it was raised.

FIFTH-
The thanks and grateful recognition of the people are due to President Hayes and to the Republican members of Congress for their firm and successful resistance to the attempts made by the Democratic party to disarm the national government, on election day, and to repeal all law for protecting the security of the ballot box and providing for the detection and punishment of fraudulent voting.

SIXTH-
The successful resumption of specie payments has vindicated the wisdom of the Republican policy on that subject, and it is the duty of the national government to maintain the gold standard of the dollar, and to see that the money of the country is expended for the purposes for which it was raised.

SEVENTH-
That it is the duty of Congress to enact laws to carry out the provisions of the constitution, with its amendments, and secure to the people the rights and liberties guaranteed by it, and that the laws, when enacted, are supreme and must be obeyed and enforced, and the recent attempts of the Democratic party to repeal the law which relates to the election of members of Congress, and to deprive the people of the right of suffrage, is a gross and unjustified interference with the rights of the people, and is a violation of the constitutional provisions which relate to the election of members of Congress.
The Republican party is opposed to such a course, and to the passage of any law which would authorize such a course. It is the duty of the national government to protect the rights of the people, and to see that the money of the country is expended for the purposes for which it was raised.

EIGHTH-
That our Governor and State officers are entitled to the thanks and grateful recognition of the people for their wise and faithful administration of the public trusts committed to them.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1879.

CITY AND COUNTY.

BRIEFINGS.

—Slack up for Sunday.
—The Guards have agreed on a new suit. It's against the Fair folk.
—Lost—on South Main street, a drab kid glove, left hand. Finder leave at this office and receive thanks.
—The physicians and surgeons of Beloit have organized a society of their own for the advancement of the science and for mutual improvement.
—The buckwheat cake boom has started, and Clark & Co. are making at their will a big profit of buckwheat flour, which is just the best out. If you don't believe it, try it.

—Mr. D. D. Bennett will, next Tuesday evening, at Miss Battle's room, organize a singing school for the purpose of teaching all who desire to read music readily and accurately.
—The "Larks" is the name of a combination similar to the Troubadours, and said to be fully equal to them. The Larks have engaged Lippin's Music Hall for the evenings of October 17th and 18th.

—Scherntz was in the Police Court to answer to the charge of assaulting his daughter. There being a lack of proof that he had cut and kicked her cruelly enough to lay himself liable he was discharged.

—In the case of the city vs Patrick Hagarty to day, in which the latter is charged with filling up the gutter on St. Mary's avenue, the defendant failed to appear, and the $5 penalty was charged up against him with costs added.

—At the lay convention held in Milwaukee in connection with the Methodist conference yesterday, Col. Z. P. Burdick of this city was elected as one of the delegates to the general conference. R. Mc Millan, of Oshkosh, is the other delegate elected.

—A farmer to-day picked up the wrong hat when he passed through the hotel office where he had taken dinner. As it had an appearance of being intended rather than a mistake, he was arrested on complaint of the owner of the hat, but was let go on paying the costs and returning property. It isn't always safe to make such mistakes.

—In the Myers house office is the register of the old Stevens house bearing date of 1818, and opening with such names as M. C. Smith, E. L. Dimock, W. W. Holden, and many others whose names have been long linked with Janesville's history. It's a rare curiosity, and the old settlers would find many a happy reminder of the by-gones by looking over its pages.

—Prof. Emil Franklin, who will be remembered by many here on account of his Shakespearean renditions, says he has retained Matt H. Carpenter as counsel to prosecute the officers of the Fond du Lac County Fair for being shut off in a speech, and subjected to other treatment over which he is quite indignant. He has started for Washington to consult over the matter.

—The sad news has reached here that Ira Burnham, who formerly lived here, died at his home at Erie, Pa., yesterday. He has shown great tenacity of life having been lying with a bullet in his brain for thirty-three days. He has not been rational except perhaps for a few moments at a time, during those long days of suffering, and did not seem to realize his condition. His death was not unexpected although the length of time which he had lived since injured had given some ground for hope that possibly he might recover.

—Last evening as Mr. and Mrs. William Reed, of La Prairie, were driving along Main street bound homeward, their buggy collided with one in which Edward McCue was seated, and which was going in an opposite direction. The wheels struck and Mr. Reed's buggy was tipped over, throwing him and his wife to the ground. Both were injured somewhat, Mr. Reed being more seriously hurt than his wife, but no bones were broken, and it is thought they will speedily recover. The horse with thills hanging about its heels went at a lively gallop onto First street where he was captured. The buggy was not badly injured. To-day Mr. Reed has a badly stiffened neck and his wife's shoulder is so badly lamed that she can hardly move.

—E. C. Alvord, of Bethel, Conn., has arrived in the city, with his wife, and is to take up his permanent residence here, having purchased an interest with Mr. G. F. Banks in the mercantile factory. Mr. Alvord and Mr. Banks married sisters, nieces of Dr. S. S. Judd, and through his influence these gentlemen have been induced to become residents of this city, and to seek investment here. Mr. Banks purchased the mercantile factory a short time ago, and since he took control of it there has been a flourishing and encouraging business done. But, the well-known New York shoe man, orders more of this factory in $50 lots. The local shoe factory has within three weeks purchased $1,500 worth. A Chicago firm have put in a $1,000 order. This indicates something of the way trade is moving off. Mr. Alvord and Mr. Banks are both men of means and of business integrity, and will add much to the business enterprise of the city, and it is to be hoped that the factory may continue to meet with still greater success.

THE WEATHER.

REPORTED BY PRENTICE & EVENSON DRUGGISTS.

The thermometer at 6 o'clock last evening stood at 72 degrees above; at 1 o'clock a m to-day at 52 degrees above; at 7 o'clock a m at 55 degrees above, and at 1 o'clock p m at 78 degrees above. Cloudy.
One year ago to-day at 7 o'clock a m the thermometer stood at 51 degrees above, and at 2 o'clock p m at 67 degrees above.

The New Harris & Smith Safety Lamps are made in all styles—hand lamps, table lamps, bracket lamps and hanging lamps. They can also be used on gas fixtures. A SURPRISED PHYSICIAN.

A DYING PATIENT RECOVERS THROUGH THE INTERPOSITION OF A HUMBLE GERMAN.—Some weeks ago Dr. C. J. G. a very reputable and widely-known physician, living on C street, was called to attend a very complicated case of Rheumatism. Upon arriving at the house he found a man at forty years of age, lying in a prostrated and serious condition, with his whole frame agoniously affected with the painful disease. He prescribed for the patient, but the man continued to grow worse, and on Sunday evening he was found to be in a very alarming condition. The knee and elbows and larger joints were greatly inflamed and could not be moved. It was only with extreme difficulty that the patient could be turned in bed, with the aid of three or four persons. The weight of the clothing was so oppressive that he could not be kept in bed. The doctor said that his resistance would be no avail, and left the house, the members of the family following him to the door weeping. At this crisis, however, a poor and humble German shoemaker, appeared to the grief-stricken ones as a saving angel. He had heard of the despair of the family and now asked them to try his remedy, and accordingly brought forth a bottle of St. Jacob's Oil. As the doctor had prescribed for the patient the poor fellow applied this remedy, and had no hope, but would try anything as a matter of duty. The first application eased the patient very much; after a few hours they used it again, and, wonder of wonders, it pain vanished entirely. Every subsequent application improved the sufferer and in two days he was well and out. When the doctor called a few days after he was indeed surprised; for, instead of a corpse, he found a new-made man.—Kielchance.

HANGED.

LITTLE ROCK, Oct. 3.—Three thousand five hundred persons witnessed the execution of Joe Kemp to-day at Evening Shade, for the murder of Marion Hulsey in 1869. He ascended the scaffold at twenty-nine minutes to 1 o'clock. He was attended by his spiritual adviser, the Rev. D. B. Ramsey. He made a very short speech, saying: "I die to-day for a crime for which I deserve the punishment. I would give some advice to young men and boys: Honor your father and your mother that your days may be long upon the earth. Lord, have mercy on my soul." He then repeated the Apostles' Creed and Lord's Prayer. The Rev. Mr. Ramsey then offered an earnest prayer. The noise was adjusted at 1 o'clock and the drop fell at 1:01. He was pronounced dead at 1:13, and was cut down at 1:22. The neck was dislocated.

DISSOLVING.

MADISON, Oct. 3.—Mark H. Barnum, one of the Wisconsin Greenback lights, had been extensively advertised to speak in the Assembly Chamber here last night, yet the flaming posters only succeeded in attracting ten Greenbackers by actual count. Democrats, Republicans, and small boys swelled this number to thirty-two persons. Brother Barnum was exceedingly wrothy over the give-away.

This is about the state of affairs through the entire State. The Greenback element has melted away until it is impossible to get up a meeting in any place in the State.

HOTEL BEAT.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., October 3.—Smith M. Prager, who has been here several months, raising bills at the hotels and baths, was arrested for vagrancy to-day. He sent a letter to Chicago for money to leave the city, informing a friend there that he intended to cheat the hotel-keepers, and rob his doctor of a watch and chain. The letter chanced to reach a druggist of the same name as Prager's friend, who mailed it back to the hotel people. The prisoner is from New York.

TIRED OF LIFE.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 3.—Thor's Divinity, a middle-aged man, threw himself over a bluff ninety feet high above the river bank this afternoon and was crushed to death by the fall. No cause assigned.

STOCK OPERATIONS THAT PAY.

The past few weeks have been prolific of immense percentages of profits at the New York Exchange, by the careful use of moderate sums in well manipulated stock transactions, which returned a legitimate gain on capital invested according to correct business principles. Great activity prevails in the market, and the most successful method for operating in a regular way is in Financial Union by the Protective System of dealing in stocks, which affords absolute guarantees that cannot possibly be assured otherwise. The vast aggregates on the sales of shares that have recently obtained such proportions have been chiefly promoted by the infusion of this new element, which has produced results surprising to all. The conservative basis of this system is its great safety. To be sure of gaining the large profits that accrue so quickly in stock movements, there must be reasonable protection against sweeping risks. This is why the Protective System excels all. On Monday three gentlemen in New York each invested $1,000 on Lake shore stock by the Financial Union system, and on Thursday closed the operation with a profit of $5,000. Each cash investor. Tuesday a bank cashier in Philadelphia put $3,000 in Protective Options on Northwestern stock, and on Saturday closed the contract with $12,000.75 profit. Early in the previous week two mechanics in Boston mailed their capital and invested $250 in Michigan Central stock, and in five days afterwards they acknowledged receipt of $1,350.55 profit. The last week in July five farmers in Central New York each invested $500 in Financial Union stock, and on Thursday, the 14th of August, they closed the deal and divided $18,000 equally between them. A lady in one of the departments in Washington used $50 for two weeks in Protective on Western Union and Lake shore stocks, and made a clear profit of $875.08. On Saturday a prominent Pennsylvania politician invested $1,500 in Delaware and Western and Michigan Central stocks, and in five days drew out of the market with $5,000 profit. A large brewer in St. Louis put $500 in Protective on St. Paul and Northwestern stocks, and fifteen days afterwards he closed with a gain of $14,000.57. These are examples of what has been accomplished in Financial Union by the Protective System of operating in stocks, and the prospect for the future is in the near future are more favorable, as the operations are equally successful in picking the profit from fluctuations up or down as they occur. Amounts from $25 to $25,000 or more can be invested with proportionate success by the Financial Union system on regular sales, that leave the control of funds in the hands of investors, with a definite knowledge at all times of just what stock their money is on, so that they can secure a glance what their profits are at any hour of the day by referring to market quotations. Investors are assured of straightforward treatment by the Financial Union system. Orders filled and forwarded by express free of charge. For full particulars, call on Mr. C. A.
